

POLITICAL PARTIES IN WILD SCRAMBLE TO GAIN FAVOR OF 28,000,000 VOTERS

BOTH REPUBLICAN AND DEMOCRATIC STATES WILL HAVE OPPORTUNITIES

PARTY EFFECTING RATIFICATION WILL NATURALLY ATTRACT LARGE
SUPPORT FROM WOMEN

LOUISIANA VOTES NEXT MONTH

WASHINGTON, April 2—Final defeat of suffrage in Delaware will start the race between the national organizations of the Democratic and Republican parties for the credit of making possible ratification of the amendment which enfranchises more than 26,000,000 women it was believed here today. Suffragists, they said, have not yet given up hope for ratification in Delaware. The Democratic states which can enter into the race for credit for final ratification are North Carolina and Louisiana, and the Republicans have Vermont and Connecticut. The Governor of North Carolina according to suffragists here has indicated that he will call a special session in June. The Louisiana legislature meets in regular session in May.

DEMOCRATS PREDICT DEFEAT FOR PEACE RESOLUTION IN THE SENATE

WASHINGTON, April 2—Republican leaders in Congress will not be able to muster enough votes to pass the peace resolution over the veto of the President, leading House Democrats declared today after a canvass. Both Champ Clark from Missouri, Democratic floor leader and Representative Floor from Virginia the ranking minority member of the Foreign Affairs committee said it would be impossible for the Republicans to force the resolution through by the two third majority necessary to override the veto.

Wilson's determination not to sign the resolution means that legal peace will not be effective until the Senate and the President agree on some kind of a treaty. This in all probability will not be until after election unless the President yields to League reservations.

HORRIBLE MURDER MYSTERY IN W. VA.

PINCETON, W. Va., April 2—Three men were held in connection with the murder of Mrs. Martin Goldheim, a bride of a few months. Her husband, a prominent business man of this city, was held as a material witness. All of the Americans escaped without injury according to the advices.

START FOREST FIRES TO MAKE BERRY CROPS

False Notion That Fires Produce Huckleberries Cause
of Much Damage

PROSECUTIONS MAY FOLLOW

HARRISBURG, Pa. April 2—Some persons still cling to the old-fashioned idea that a heavy crop of huckleberries follows a forest fire, according to Carl L. Kirk, forester in charge of the Pennfield state forest in Clearfield county. He believes that that forest fire that swept over an area of 75 acres along Mountain Lick Run last week was started intentionally for the purpose of growing a better crop of huckleberries two years hence.

Forester Kirk and a crew of fire-fighters extinguished the blaze before it had done much damage to the forest reserve, but if the wind had not been favorable or if there had been less snow in the woods, the damage he believes, would have been considerable. There is a chance, Forester Kirk reports, that the person responsible for the fire will be brought to justice. The forest officers who responded to the fire call were Carl L. Kirk, forester; Frank Johnston, ranger; W. H. Lamb, patrolman, and J. J. Timlin, forest-fire warden.

Forester Kirk has started construction of a telephone line on his reserve. The first job will be to connect the forester's headquarters with the Bell Central office. Work will then be started to connect up the rangers' headquarters on Anderson creek.

Sheriff S. C. Lowry, of Jefferson county is assisting Forester Kirk to procure capable fire wardens to look after the protection of the forest lands in Jefferson county.

OLD STAGE COACH DRIVER DIES

Harry Treatman, for many years a resident of Clearfield, died at the County Home hospital yesterday, aged about 75 years.

The deceased was an old-time stage coach driver and was quite widely known throughout this region. When the railroads displaced the stage coach, he took up teaming and was employed about Leavy's and other Clearfield livery stables for a number of years. He was an industrious man, although badly crippled and when advancing years additionally handicapped him, he became an inmate of the Home.

He is survived by one daughter living in Tyrone, and two sons whose whereabouts are unknown.

Thirteen Candidates For President Entered In Michigan Primary Monday

A GOOD FRIDAY PRAYER

O Merciful God, who hast made all men in Thy image and whose love will let none go, give to us a new vision of Thy Son whose death on Calvary we today recall. Grant to men everywhere a new appreciation of the meaning of Christ's sacrifice for the world. Forbid that men and nations again release the Barabbas of selfishness, and crucify anew the Christ. Lift up their eyes today to see the cross that towers o'er the wrecks of time. Give to the world a new and holy purpose to follow Him who said "If I be lifted up I will draw all men unto me," that as we die today to self we may pass on Easter Day into the joyful resurrection of a life that is hid with Christ in God. And this we ask in Jesus' name. Amen.

"Ice Cream," Demands Juror, Morning, Noon and Night

By M. D. TRACY
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

TOMBSTONE, Ariz., April 2—"I gotta have another of them cornucopias," impatiently remarked an elderly gentleman to the keeper of Tombstone's only soda fountain, located in Tombstone's combination drug store, cabaret, concert hall, news stand and cigar emporium.

"If that old fellow don't quit chasing me over here after cornucopias he's goin' to founder himself," the elderly gentleman went on.

It was the bailiff carrying out the court's instructions with regard to the care of the Bisbee, "deportation" jury.

"You gentlemen are to see that every want of these jurors is filled," was what Judge Sam Pattee had told the three bailiffs the night he ordered the cowboy jury locked up for the remainder of the historic trial in which it is sitting.

Those orders were a signal for every juror to satisfy the least whim

he had developed in long, dreary months of riding ranges and facing the wind, sun and sand of the desert.

With one man the chief demand had been for talcum after a shave. Another is forcing the country to furnish him with a luxurious handsoap which contains olive oil as a relief from the brand purchasable at the crossroads grocery.

But with one juror the demand is for ice cream cones. Who the dispatting member of the jury is, no one can tell, but that does not alter the fact that all Tombstone knows his failing for vanilla ice cream.

Just before court convenes in the morning a bailiff makes a hurry call at the soda fountain.

"One of them vanilla cornucopias," he says.

At noon he appears again. And twice in the evening—before and after the movie show—its "ice cream cones for one" and the bailiff disappears behind the swinging doors of the courtroom.

WAS FORMER CLEARFIELD RESIDENT

William E. Schoening, Jr., the 11 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Schoening, former resident of Clearfield, died at his parents' home in Bradford, Pa., on Sunday last, as the result of the lad having eaten wild parsnip or other poisonous root which he found growing along the Erie railroad tracks near that city.

In speaking of the sad affair the Bradford Star says: "Young Schoening returned home terribly ill and Dr. Woodhead was summoned, but by the time he arrived the boy was in convulsions and near death. He died at 2:45 o'clock."

He is survived by his parents, two sisters and three brothers. The Schoening family removed from Clearfield to Bradford some two years ago.

DISTRICT HEADQUARTERS MOV- ED FROM DUBOIS

District No. 8, of the State Highway Department, having headquarters in DuBois since May, 1916, and formerly comprising the counties of Clearfield, Jefferson, Indiana, Cameron and Elk, and which under the reorganization in January, 1920, now includes the counties of Jefferson, Indiana, Clarion and Armstrong, Clearfield county having been added to District 1, has moved its office and forces to Kittanning, Pa., the permanent headquarters for the District in the future. The personnel of District 8 in DuBois consisted of Paul Brubaker, Acting District Engineer; John M. Dunsmore, Assistant Engineer; Roswell Canfield, Chief Draftsman; J. B. Carlson, Chief Clerk, together with a field and office force of twenty men, working in and out of DuBois.

Billie Betz, of Philadelphia, is spending a few days with his uncle, W. I. Betz.

PROGRESS BEING MADE ON RE-BUILD- ING OF BRIDGES

The Progress is in receipt of a query from a down river citizen, relative to the progress made by the County Commissioners toward having the Deer Creek and Rolling Stone bridges rebuilt. We visited the Commissioners' office this morning and in answer to our inquiry, received the information that everything possible is being done at this end of the line and action by the State authorities, who have the bridges to build, is expected very shortly.

A story is being circulated to the effect that nothing can be done toward the rebuilding of these bridges until the Legislature of 1921 makes the necessary appropriation. There is nothing to such a tale. The law specifies that these bridges must be built out of any funds available to the State Highway Department, which always has ample funds on hand for such emergencies.

We hope to have some good news on these projects shortly.

PIONEER KARTHANUS CITIZEN DIES

John Maines, one of the oldest and best known citizens of the lower end of the county, died at his home in Karthaus township on Wednesday last, aged 87 years. The deceased was the father of J. C. Maines, of Glen Richey, and Lou Maines, of Karthaus.

His funeral will be held from the Oak Grove Lutheran church at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. Rev. John P. McCurdy will conduct the services. Interment in Oak Grove cemetery.

Herbert Hoover Has Name On Both Republican And Democratic Ballots

OTHER UNUSUAL SITUATIONS

NEW YORK, April 2—Campaign observers are predicting that Michigan will become a political cemetery Monday. Thirteen candidates for the Presidential nomination—7 Republicans, 5 Democrats and 1 Socialist—are entered in the primaries on that date. While it is still comparatively early, in pre-convention campaigns Michigan is regarded as "a typical state" this year so far as nominations are concerned. Several candidates, particularly the Republicans are confidently claiming the state's endorsement. The thirteen candidates are: Republicans, Senator Miles Poindexter, Senator Hiram Johnson, General John J. Pershing, Major General Leonard Wood, Governor Frank O. Lowden, of Illinois, Herbert Hoover and W. G. Simpson, of Detroit. The Democrats are: Governor Edward I. Edwards, of New Jersey; Wm. Jennings Bryan, Wm. G. McAdoo, Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer and Herbert Hoover and Eugene Debs for the Socialists. At least two of the Republican candidates are expected to come in "on the Roosevelt sentiment"—Wood and Johnson—both of whom were persona friends of Roosevelt and generally regarded as Progressives. Hoover's backers believe he will inherit a large part of the liberal element that supported Roosevelt and Wilson. The fact that Hoover is on both tickets is expected to bring about an interesting situation.

IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Get less meat and take a glass of Jal Salts to flush out kidneys—
Drink plenty water.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush out the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from back-ache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Get less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jal Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

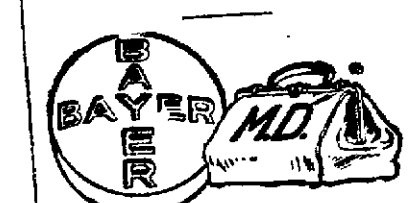

Jal Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jal Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

KANSAS TO HAVE FIRST HANGING IN FIFTY YEARS

LEAVENWORTH, Kansas, April 2.—Robert F. Stroud, of Junction, Alaska, will be the first man legally hanged in Kansas in almost fifty years, unless President Wilson saves him by exercise of executive clemency.

The last legal hanging in this state took place in 1870 and the death penalty was abolished in Kansas in 1907, but Stroud was tried and convicted in federal courts for a murder committed in the federal penitentiary here and sentenced under federal law to be hanged.

Another unusual feature of the case is the fact that he would have escaped with life imprisonment if he had not insisted upon a third trial which resulted in a death sentence. It is carried out he will be the first man to be executed in Leavenworth prison.

Stroud was serving a twelve-year sentence in the penitentiary for the killing of a man in Alaska in a quarrel over a dance-hall girl, when in 1916 he attacked Andrew E. Turner, a prison guard, and stabbed him to death with a dagger which he had made from a table knife, and earned in a concealed pocket in his coat. Stroud asserted subsequently that Turner had called him a name.

For this killing Stroud had three trials. In the first he was found guilty of murder and sentenced to death, but the court of appeals reversed the case on the ground that the trial judge had failed to inform the jury of its privilege of bringing in a "qualified verdict" limiting the punishment to life imprisonment. In the second trial the jury availed itself of this legal provision and sentenced him for life. Stroud's lawyers felt that they had gained a victory, but at the prisoner's insistence the case was again appealed, and at his third trial Stroud was once more found guilty and sentenced to death. The case was carried to the United States Supreme Court which affirmed the sentence.

Stroud has been aided by his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Stroud, who came from Alaska in an effort to save his life. She appealed to President Wilson to commute the death sentence.

STEEL PROSPERITY IS PREDICTED IN BUSINESS CIRCLES

All the recent reports bear out forecasts previously made that the United States is facing a large business in steel manufacture. If in the future, as in the past, the condition of the steel industry shall be an index of industrial conditions, the outlook is exceedingly encouraging.

The fact is that practically all industries that are large consumers of steel suspended development along normal lines during the war. There was no laying of rails for the extension of railroad lines. In fact, the reports of the Interstate Commerce commission show an actual decrease in railroad mileage. Not only that, but the railroads did not replace worn rails during the war to the same extent that they did in time of peace.

The manufacture of machinery for ordinary peace purposes the erection of steel frame buildings and the construction of bridges were postponed wherever possible, and all this accumulated construction work must now be undertaken. There is every reason why the country may expect a long-continued activity in the production of steel and fabricated steel products. Prosperity in the steel industry will be reflected in almost every other line of enterprise.

This will be the last night of the special services. Members of the church come and bring your friends along. Mrs. Mary Fricke, 507 Borman St., Bellefonte, Pa., is just one of the many thousands of ladies throughout the country who, after an agony of years, have at last found health, strength and vigor in PE-RU-NA.

Her own words tell of her suffering and recovery better than we can do it: "I suffered with my stomach, had awful cramps and headaches so I often could not lay on a pillow. Saw your book, tried PE-RU-NA and got good results from the first bottle. To be sure of a cure I took twelve bottles. I have recommended PE-RU-NA to my friends and all are well pleased with results. I will not be one day without PE-RU-NA, which had a doctor since I started with PE-RU-NA, which was about fifteen years ago. I am now sixty-three years old, hale, hearty and well. Can do as much work as my daughters. I feel strong and healthy and weigh nearly two hundred pounds. Before, I weighed as little as one hundred. The AMERICAN LEGION

WITH THE POSTS OF THE
NATIONAL SERVICE
MEN

(Copy for This Department Supplied by National Headquarters of the American Legion)

STARTS FUND FOR BUILDING

Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce Heads Movement for Memorial and Permanent Headquarters.

The Indianapolis chamber of commerce is raising a fund for the erection of a war memorial building to be the permanent national headquarters of the American Legion, which, with appropriations by the city, county and state, promises to run to several million dollars.

"Every citizen of the city of Indianapolis and every organization owes a debt of appreciation and gratitude to the men who so ably and persistently and skillfully carried on the campaign for Indianapolis," said Charles F. Coffin, president of the Indianapolis chamber of commerce, which contributed to a fund to send a large delegation to the Minneapolis convention.

"There is now an obligation as well as an opportunity upon the citizens of Indianapolis to show that they all appreciate the significance of the fact that the headquarters of the great organization are to be permanently located in Indianapolis. It is not enough simply to have obtained them. I think you will agree with me that the least the city of Indianapolis can do is to supply the Legion ample grounds free of charge upon which they will erect one of the handsomest buildings that Indianapolis has ever had."

"Belonging the headquarters of this organization to Indianapolis is not like bringing a factory or industrial plant to the city. With this organization comes a power from which will go influences for law and order and civilization."

The fund started by the chamber of commerce grew quickly. The county commissioners shortly took steps looking to a half million dollar bond issue, the county's contribution to the fund. The state legislature is expected to make appropriation for the memorial and the Legion posts will canvass the state for contributions to what will probably be a $5,000,000 or $6,000,000 memorial fund.

A plan is now under consideration to purchase two city blocks lying between two parks which would clear a plaza between the city post office on the south and the city library on the north, which the new memorial building would face.

POPPY AS MEMORIAL FLOWER

Tacoma (Wash.) Post Adopts Resolution Urging Flanders Field Blossom Be Made Official.

A request has been received by Franklin D'Oller, national commander of the American Legion, to have the Shirley poppy adopted as the memorial flower of the Legion. The request originated with the Edward B. Rhodes Post No. 2 of Tacoma, Wash., which has adopted a resolution favoring the adoption of the poppy.

The resolution adopted by the Washington post was as follows:

"Let us in the day's work, surrounded by home and happiness, forget our comrades who sleep in France, and here in the arms of the motherland;

"Let us forget 'that greater love' of these American boys who 'gave their lives for their fellow men';

"Let us forget that in Flanders fields the poppies grow, among the crosses, row on row, and that nature seems to have raised in these simple flowers the most eloquent monument—a waving scarlet blessing over their graves;

"Be it resolved, That the Edward B. Rhodes post, American Legion, inaugurate a movement to have the Shirley poppy adopted as the Memorial flower of the American Legion.

"That the American Legion take steps to assist and urge that every public park, cemetery, and every private garden, in gratitude to the men who made the supreme sacrifice, do, during the coming spring and summer, and every spring and summer thereafter, revere the memory of our soldier dead by setting aside a plot for continued display of waving red poppies.

"That a red poppy be worn by every member of the American Legion on Memorial day."

It is probable that a similar resolution will be introduced by the post at the next convention of the American Legion, which is to be held in Cleveland, O.

IN CHARGE OF ORGANIZATION

Director of Division Loaned to the American Legion by War Camp Community Service.

Russell G. Creviston, director of the organization division of the American Legion at national headquarters, Indianapolis, has been loaned for that purpose by the War Camp Community Service, with which organization he served as executive secretary in Minneapolis, prior to his affiliation with the Legion.

A Hoosier by birth, Mr. Creviston enlisted in May, 1917, in Company E of the Fourth Indiana infantry. He served as a private in this company for three months when he was elected as a candidate from his company to the second officers' training corps at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana. Commissioned as a first lieutenant of infantry, he was given complete charge of the administration co-ordination section.

On April 5, 1918, he was selected by the committee on education and special training to help in the organization of a vocational training system. In this connection, he was transferred to the inspectors' division and given charge of the states of Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, North and South Dakota, where he established various student army training corps.

Upon the completion by the war department of the S. A. T. C. movement, he was transferred to the general staff and put in charge of the ninth district commission on training camp activities, with station in Kansas City, Mo. In this capacity he covered nine states of the Middle West, during which time he was charged with the bettering of conditions within the camps and non-camp cities that bear direct relation to the demobilization period. He was discharged June 7, 1919, and accepted a position with the War Camp Community service.

A year's cold storage for certain articles of food seems long enough, considering that the ultimate consumer will naturally expect to pay the fee bill.

IS COMMANDER OF NEW POST

Corporal Bute Presides Over Recently Formed Organization at Walter Reed Hospital.

Corporal J. E. Bute was elected commander of the new post of the American Legion recently formed at Walter Reed hospital in Washington, D. C., where about 1,800 sick and wounded men are receiving treatment. Corporal Bute was the addressee of a Christmas greeting, which Franklin D'Oller, national commander sent to the ex-service men of the country.

In a letter recently received by Mr. D'Oller, Corporal Bute said:

"I very much suspect that you will be surprised to know that we have formed a very good post of the Legion here at the hospital. Two hundred and some signed the first night and it is near the four hundred mark now. I expect to have the post 1,800 strong by the first of the month.

"You may expect to hear some peculiar resolutions from us, but I am going to ask you to give us credit for wanting to help in any way possible ourselves and our brother comrades who have been back in civilian life for some time."

PLAN IS ENDORSED BY LABOR

New Jersey Unions and Labor Paper Editor in Favor of Americanism Program.

The Charles Henry Post No. 29 (New Brunswick, N. J.) secured the active co-operation of the local unions of the American Federation of Labor in the Americanism program which has been worked out by that post. Members of the post Americanism committee first explained in detail to the editor of the labor paper what their aims and plans were. They asked his help in advancing the cause of good citizenship and he not only publicly gave his editorial support, but offered space in his paper for publicity they wished for their work.

Members of the committee also went to the heads of various unions, and explained their aims and plans of campaign. The labor leaders, who were all patriotic Americans, were enthusiastic in their support of the Legion's plans and at one of the early meetings of all the labor unions the committee presented an outline of the Americanism work, for which they wish to obtain the assistance of the unions.

Icelandic Trawling Partisans. Compared with the hardships of Icelandic trawling, North sea boats are always in a haven. From October to March blizzards of snow and blizzards sweep the Icelandic regions, and from December to the end of January there is only an hour or two of daylight. Icelandic vessels are much larger than North sea trawlers, and so managed in the difference between the two operations that an Icelandic shipper rarely works the North sea, and vice versa.

Buy your New Edison on our Budget Plan

EXPERT household managers have long used the Budget Plan. It stretches their incomes. We borrowed it—and applied it to the purchase of the New Edison. Come in. Find out how this good, old "thrifty" idea solves the problem of your New Edison.

We adopted the Budget Plan to please two people—Thomas A. Edison and You.

Edison's great hobby is music. He holds that good music is a necessity in the home.

But access to the great operas and concerts has been confined to the FEW. Edison thought of the MANY, and spent $3 million dollars in research work to develop the New Edison, "the phonograph with a soul."

Edison's new phonograph RE-CREATES the great voices and instrumental art of the world, with such perfect realism that human ear cannot distinguish RE-CREATED art from living art, even when the two are heard in direct comparison.

Edison set free a necessity that had been a luxury for ages.

We are working with Mr. Edison, and have adopted the Budget Plan in accord with his wishes.

The Budget Plan is a way for you to get your New Edison now. It doesn't increase your household expenses,—it simply distributes your monthly pleasure allowance in a different way. It gets you more for your money. Come in and see us. Tell us how you would like to plan your New Edison budget.

BELOW ZERO

By OTILLIA F. PFEIFFER

(Copyright, 1920, Western Newspaper Union)

He was a dreamer and a sentimentalist, but a genius as well, so the combination was rational to a degree. To the little community of Newton he was known as Jarvis Morton, a newcomer, living in a modest cottage with his mother and reputed to be an artist. In the live and active world his newspaper pen and ink sketches had begun to make him a name.

He was standing at the window of a cold and cheerless room, but not gazing outside, for the frost lay like a blanket across the panes. The merest excuse for a fire spluttered in the grate. On an easel was a drawing board with a sheet of paper tacked to it. The outline of a fair girl's face showed, but only half finished. Too cold to continue careful work, but the creative impulse always seeking expression, he applied the pencil tip to the frosts, pane and began sketching that same face.

Amid his abstraction he had not heard a knock at the frosted portal nor footsteps in the hallway. The door of the room was timidly pressed open.

"If you please, if you are Mr. Morton," commenced a pleasing voice, and its owner, girlish and attractive, faltered. Her glance had fallen upon the limned face on the easel and its more finished duplicate on the window pane. Surprise, pleasure, wonderment and admiration blended.

Jarvis Morton turned to instantly recognize the original of his art effort. He had seen her across two vacant lots several times, but had never spoken to her. He spoke now, with an encouraging smile, for she had become timid and embarrassed.

"I am Jarvis Morton," he said. "You are our neighbor, I believe, Miss Hilsley?"

"Yes, Marian Hilsley," hurried on the girl, fidgeting. "If you please, your mother sent me over. It is so cold and slippery outside that I wished to save her exposure and discomfort. She came over to use our telephone to hurry up the load of coal you ordered. The dealer says they haven't a pound of fuel in the yard, and mother says that this coal shortage makes us all like one family, and the weather man says the cold snap will last for a week, and you people are to bring over some comforters and lock up the house, and we'll do the rest."

"And what a beneficent 'rest!' rejoined Jarvis brightly. 'This isn't mere hospitality. It's a real rescue from freezing to death! I was just thinking of splitting up a couple of chairs and muffling in all the blankets in the house and hibernating until the zero menace was gone.'

His joyousness was manifest, and she entered into the enlivening rest of the occasion with demure, but pretty graciousness.

"You see, we managed to just graze the famine by getting a ton of coal delivered yesterday," she resumed. "Your mother insists on bringing over whatever there is cooked in the house."

"Won't you help me rummage the larder?" suggested Jarvis, and they laughed and chatted like two happy children as they loaded up a clothesbasket. Then Jarvis went to secure the blankets. When he returned Marian stood surveying the easel sketch.

"How nice to be able to draw like that," she ventured, detected at studying her own presentment.

"And how fortunate was I to catch your face as a study while you were cleaning the snow this morning!" said Jarvis. "When the sketch is finished I shall call it 'The Snow Queen.' The newspaper asked for something wintry, and that graceful swirl of the snow shovel and the shimmering flakes forming an airy veil just filled the bill."

"Oh! it won't be printed, will it?" marveled Marian. "Me in the paper! How strange it will seem to me! It must be delightful to be able to make the world look at whatever you wish to draw."

"Bless the coal shortage!" uttered the artist and lover after four days' sojourn in the cozy Hilsley home, for the latter he had unconsciously become, and the fulfillment of a cherished ideal of loveliness, artless innocence and silent but sweet devotion had brought a bewildering joy to his impressible heart. It seemed as if his mother had emerged from direful loneliness into perfect enjoyable comfort and companionship, shut in from the outside world with happy-spirited Mrs. Hilsley. Marian flitted about the little house with smiles and bright sayings, making it a delight to Jarvis to hear, to see and to cherish her. He frowned when the cold moderated, he growled when he realized that they must soon leave this Eden of perfectness.

"What a happy four we would all make!" he soliloquized one day, and, musing at the window, he began tracing on a lightly frosted pane, as Marian chanced into the room.

"Come here, please," he spoke, with a bright sparkle in his eye. At the window she had first seen him, at a window she now joined him, and as he handed her his pencil she flushed and trembled, as she read:

"I love you."

Then, in pretty embarrassment, but ecstatically quiet, she traced the true, simple words:

"I love you, too!"

Cause for Gladness.

Heien had not seen her grandmother since the child was a wee tot. Grandma came to them on a visit and proved to be quite young looking and stylish. After greetings were over Heien, standing at a distance, looked at her grandparent and approvingly said: "Grandma, I is so glad you is so full of youngness."

Goat's Milk.

Goat's milk in Naples is a satisfactory and healthful solution to the difficult problem of supplying the extremely poor with a food commodity free from deliberate adulteration. With a death rate of infants under one year of 155 per 1,000, the Naples rate is lower than that of the principal cities of Europe.

Keep Up Your Confidence.

The majority of failures begin to deteriorate by doubting or depreciating themselves or by losing confidence in their own ability. The moment you harbor doubt and begin to lack faith in yourself you capitulate to the enemy. Every time you acknowledge weakness, inefficiency or lack of ability you weaken your self-confidence, and that is to undermine the very foundation of all achievement.—Orison Swett Marden in Chicago Daily News.

Cinching the Pedestrian.

Motorists, it seems, are hoping that it will soon be compulsory for pedestrians to carry number plates for the purpose of identification in the event of any attempt to run away after being knocked down.—London Punch.

Hair Was Golden.

A neighbor's child, three, had never before noticed that her uncle had a bald spot on his head. On the occasion of a recent call she said: "Oh, Uncle Frank, you have a hole in your hair."

80TH DIVISION
TO RE-UNE AT
PITTSBURGHLIST OF JURORS
DRAWN FOR MAY
TERM OF COURTGreat Preparations Being Made
To Welcome Heroes of Blue
Ridge Fame

APRIL 10TH DATE OF FETE

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 2—The biggest get-together meeting held by members of the Eightieth Division, Veterans' Association, will be staged here April 10 at Motor Square Garden. Many former unit commanders of the division, in addition to hundreds of doughboys who served under them through the campaigns in France, will descend on Pittsburgh from all over Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Virginia.

Among leaders of the Blue Ridge Division, who will be present to meet the men of their old commands are Brig. Gen. Adelbert Cronkhite, who commanded the division; Col. Lloyd M. Brett, retired, who as a brigadier general commanded the One Hundred and Sixtieth Brigade of Infantry in France; Col. George D. Freeman, commander of the Three Hundred and Eighteenth Infantry; Col. Harry C. Jones, of the Three Hundred and Eighteenth Infantry; Capt. William C. Vandewater of the Three Hundred and Twentieth Infantry; Capt. John McBridge of the Three Hundred and Eighteenth Infantry; Major Charles M. Jones, divisional adjutant, and Capt. Curtis W. McGraw of the Three Hundred and Twentieth Infantry.

Many events, including dancing, a circus sideshow and exhibition of war trophies captured from the Germans by men of the division, moving pictures showing various armistice day celebrations in Pittsburgh, and last but not least, cats. Just what the show will consist of is a secret, but the ladies of Pennsylvania Auxiliary No. 1 Eightieth Division Veterans' Association under whose auspices the meeting is being held, have guaranteed that "goldfish" and "corned willie" will not be on the menu.

Short speeches will be made by Maj. Gen. Cronkhite and Col. Brett. A feature of the reunion will be an arrangement by which men of various units will be able to gather in their own P. C.'s. The hall will be divided into sections and each unit assigned a place where its members can hold forth with their old bunks.

As the meeting will attract many men from out-of-town to Pittsburgh, it has been decided to show the government official film, "The Eightieth In Action" at Carnegie Music Hall April 8. The pictures there are nine reels created such a fine impression when shown here several weeks ago, and so many were disappointed in not being able to secure seats, that, after much effort, the officials of the Veterans' Association obtained the privilege of showing the film again. Tickets are on sale here at Mellor's Music Store. Reservations can be made by mail.

Of all the men in the Blue Ridge Division none stood closer to the doughboys than Father "Ed" Wallace of the Three Hundred and Twentieth Infantry. So "Father Ed" is coming up to the get-together meeting and on the following day, Sunday he, in company with three other former champions of the division, will conduct a memorial service here in St. Paul's Cathedral.

Arrangements are being made to supply rooms for men who are coming to Pittsburgh to attend the events. Members are advised to write at once to headquarters of the Eightieth Division Veterans' Association, 915 Bessemer Building, Pittsburgh, Pa.

CLEARFIELD LOSES VALUABLE
SALVATION ARMY WORKER

On Sunday evening Lieutenant M. R. Howe, the able assistant of Captain Roub of the Salvation Army, farewelled to go to her new appointment at Punxsutawney. She has been under farewell orders since January 25th, but owing to the serious illness in the family of the commanding officer, it was thought best to keep her here until they were improved sufficiently to let the Captain free to look after the duties of the Corps.

Clearfield's loss is Punxsutawney's gain and we pray that God may bless and help her in her new field.

Extra rubber
is hardest

JUST where your last pair of shoes wore out first—just where miners' shoes usually break through—that's where the U. S. Bootee is specially backed up.

Five thicknesses of tough, springy rubber in the sole! Ten heavy layers of rubber and fabric back of the heel! Five at the toe! Six in front where the bend comes! Four at the fold on the side!

More and more of the old timers today are wearing this shoe that's made for work in the mines.

The U. S. Bootees are made by the oldest and largest rubber manufacturer in the world.

And they're made right, too. No rubbing up and down at the heel—plenty of room for your toes—every pair is as comfortable as a leather shoe.

Go to the store and see the U. S. Bootee for yourself. It comes in two styles, high and low—the high with six eyelets, the low with four. Ask for U. S. rubber footwear—it means solid wear and long service for your money.

If it could be ascertained beyond a doubt just who the popular choice of Republicans is for president the prognostications of political dopesters would be useless. By the same token the safety and security of the republic would be assured. Three weeks ago Mr. Wood had almost a clear field to himself throughout the eastern states and while interest in his candidacy cannot be said to have weakened the looms on the horizon a spectre named Hoover whose popularity is rapidly increasing. Johnson of California is a giant in the west and will have to be reckoned with in the convention while Sproul is holding his own in fine shape in all quarters. These four men we have mentioned are now definitely in the race by reason of popular demand. It is a peculiar situation. It cannot be said that any one of them is the particular choice of the ruling powers of the party and some of them are decidedly distasteful. The average Republican has his personal choice but once the convention names the man they will be behind him to the last ditch.

When the proletariat did so much kicking on the fifty cent hair cut price adopted by the barber's union here some months ago we saw a division of labor. The fellow who worked in the mine, the mill and the shop ouches with the fellow who worked in the office and the store. It is a peculiar world. The newspaper man kicks about the price of a suit and the merchant kicks on the price of advertising. The miner kicks about the price of a haircut and the barber kicks about the price of coal. The laborer kicks about the price of farm produce and the farmer kicks on the price of labor. The barbers' union was not represented at the labor political conference held here last Sunday. Neither was the farmers' union, the Grange.

Governor Holcomb of Connecticut, remains firm in his refusal to call a special session of the legislature to act upon the Woman Suffrage Amendment. After practically two-thirds of the states have ratified the amendment, it looks like a very narrow policy to refuse women of America the privilege which should be theirs by every moral right. Every man in this or any other community is indebted to his mother for his good qualities. It was her constant care, her vigilance and self-sacrifice that nurtured in him the highest attributes that he possesses. It is the mothers of America who are shaping the destinies of this nation, and it is very doubtful if Governor Holcomb would have been the chief executive of the state of Connecticut had not his mother been a woman of sterling character and high ideals.

The experience that the nations have had with the Turks, during past centuries, and their record during the world war should be a convincing argument against further parley, notes, threats or any other form of diplomacy. Not only the city of Constantinople but the whole country should, in the interest of humanity, be occupied by the military forces of the allies, and controlled by them until new governments have been organized to succeed the Turks and said government so strongly supported by the world powers that never again may the soil of that unhappy land drink the blood of massacred Christians, whose only crime is love of home, liberty and their faith in God.

Spanish Sardine.
The principal industry of Vigo, Spain, is sardine picking. The Vigo district furnishes almost one-fourth of the world's production of sardines. The exports of these in oil in 1918 amounted to 1,017,000 cases of 100 tins each, with an estimated total value of $13,000,000.

Remarkable Sight.
Little Marjorie, aged 4, was looking out of the window on a frosty morning and saw a horse and buggy passing, and called: "Oh, mamma, come quick and see the dust comin' out of the horse's mouth."

Waterproof Glue.
Casolin glues are exceedingly resistant to the action of water and retain a very high percentage of their original strength even after long immersion under water. They are comparatively inexpensive, and the materials from which they are made are readily available in the market. They are applied cold and will set without the application of heat.

Duly Announced.
Mary, upon answering the door bell found a couple of women who had stopped to call. As she let them in she called to her mother: "Mother, you have a couple of customers."

STATEMENT OF MR. HERBERT HOOVER ON PRESIDENCY

"New York, March 3, 1920
"To Warren Gregory,
"Merchants' Exchange Building,
"San Francisco, California:

"I had not wished to enter, nor could I hitherto see any real public service by entering, into partisan political discussion, more especially pending the clarification of the diverging views of the different groups in the parties on the great new issues. The recent developments over the treaty, stagnation in adjustment of our great economic problems, and particularly the many urgent representations that I have received as to the situation in my own state, convince me that it is my duty to confirm the action that my Republican friends there have already taken without consulting me.

"I understand that there is a great wish among the Republicans of California to have opportunity to express themselves in favor of the League of Nations with proper reservations, safeguarding American tradition and interests, as opposed to the extreme view advocated against any league at all. I differ just as strongly with this view as I differ with the extreme position taken by the President on participation in European affairs. This issue is whether with reservations protecting our position, we should join the moral forces of the world to reduce the dangers again growing around us or whether we will, by pretense of an insularity that we do not possess, sit by in the face of growing armies, navies, national antagonisms, reaction or, in reverse, the spread of Bolshevism through much of the world. That would be the defeat of the hopes for which our sons were sacrificed in the war.

"Entirely aside from this moral dimension of the issue and the impact to our own ultimate peace, the solution of our domestic problems, such as the size of our armament, reduction in taxation and the prevention of agricultural and industrial depression and consequent unemployment, is dependent on stability abroad and on our access to the world's markets, which today are endangered by discrimination against us through our inability to exercise our veto under the treaty. I believe it is the transcendent service the Republican party can render to the nation to settle a league efficiently designed to give us these national protections.

"No one should be able to dictate the policies of great parties, yet every man and woman has the right to decide what issues and measure he will support. If the Republican party with the independent element of which I am naturally affiliated adopts a forward looking, liberal, constructive platform on the treaty and on our economic issues, and if the party proposes measures for sound business administration of the country and is neither reactionary nor radical in its approach to our great domestic questions and is backed by men who undoubtedly assure the consummation of these policies and measures, I will give it my entire support. While I do not and will not myself seek the nomination, if it is felt that the issues necessitate it and it is demanded of me I cannot refuse service.

Exquisite Pumps And Oxfords For Easter Wear

They are daintily feminine in design, yet fashioned to assure fullest comfort for the wearer—and there is such variety in our display that every preference can be fully satisfied.

Getting Your Money's Worth

There's a lot of satisfaction in knowing that you're getting good shoes. Paying a little more doesn't matter, but if the shoes fail to hold up there's trouble ahead.

It's on the service basis that we recommend our Oxfords to any man who wants to be sure of his money's worth this spring. We won't sacrifice quality for price.

Lytle Brothers

Our Dollars are stretched to the limit

WE have been dancing to the tune of "ECONOMY" for years. During the war, we cut, and cut, and cut some more.

We have gone the limit.

Are there new and improved practices?

Yes.

Automatic telephone equipment is coming—but it will be several years before it can be accomplished. And, besides, large amounts of capital will be required.

Multiplex telephony—the using of one circuit for several simultaneous conversations—is assured. But money is also needed for this complicated apparatus.

These improvements will save money—ultimately.

But they can't be obtained and introduced if the company is not paying its way. You would not put your money into a business that is not making a profit.

Telephone rates are the same as they were before the war.

They must be made adequate if the service is to be kept up.

The Cold That Hangs On

This is No. 5 of a series of advertisements, prepared by a competent physician, explaining how certain diseases which attack the air passages—such as Pneumonia, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Measles or even a long continued Cold—often leave these organs in an inflamed, congested state, thus affording a favorable foothold for invading germs. And how Vick's Vapo-Rub may be of value in this condition.

A cold is simply an inflammation of some part of the air passages—throat, larynx or bronchial tubes—just like a sore is an inflammation of the skin. A long continued cold means constant inflammation and this constant inflammation frequently weakens the air passages so that they become an easy point of attack for invading germs of more serious diseases. A "cold that hangs on," therefore, is simply nature's "red flag," indicating that there is "trouble below," and this warning should never be neglected.

Nightly applications of Vick's Vapo-Rub will aid nature to clear up that inflammation. Because Vick's acts locally by stimulation thru the skin to draw out the inflammation, attract the blood away from the congested spots and relieve the cough. In addition, the medicinal ingredients of Vick's are vaporized by the body heat. These vapors are breathed in all night long, thus bringing the medication to bear directly upon the inflamed areas.

Vick's should be rubbed in over the throat and chest until the skin is red—then spread on thickly and covered with hot flannel cloths—leave the clothing loose around the neck and the bed clothes arranged in the form of a funnel so the vapors arising may be freely inhaled. If the cough is annoying, swallow a small bit of Vick's the size of a pea.

Samples to new users will be sent free on request to The Vick Chemical Company, 235 Broad Street, Greensboro, N. C.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS CURWENSVILLE

The employees at the Elk sole leather tannery have been granted a slight increase in wages. The bonus heretofore paid the men as an inducement for them to work steadily, has been removed.

John Hudson has sold his South Side property to Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dotts, who will soon occupy the same. Mr. Hudson will remove with his family to the Joseph L. Dale farm near the Bloom bridge in Pike township, and will follow agricultural pursuits during the summer.

Through the agency of Game Warden Clair Kelly and John Kelly, twenty pairs of quail and seven pairs of ring neck pheasants were distributed around in the woods not far from town on Tuesday. The birds were in good healthy condition and ought to multiply rapidly.

Orvil King, son of Dr. King, came home from his studies in a Philadelphia medical school and will spend his Easter vacation with his parents.

Squire John A. Dale was in Clearfield Wednesday assisting in the probate of the will of the late Daniel Schorr. Besides owning his property on North Thompson street, he carried a life insurance policy of $1,000.

The high wind the other day played havoc with the barn roof owned by Joseph Dale on the hill above town.

The advance rates of the Raftsmen Water Company, the Penn. Electric company and telephone companies, went into effect yesterday, much to the dissatisfaction of patrons. A good many people contemplate removing their phones from their homes, as they claim that the rates are excessive for the service rendered them.

Mrs. Samuel Norris is in Warren, Ohio, visiting with relatives and friends. She writes that the stock visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Leach, a son of Irvin Leach, and left a young son.

M. V. Read, who has been employed at the McKinley home for the past three years, has resigned his position. Mr. Read has not as yet decided what he will follow this summer, he having had several good-paying situations offered to him. He is of the opinion, however, that he will go out of town and work during the summer months.

Lew Lewis and wife, who spent the greater part of the winter months at Ashland, Kentucky, at the home of Mrs. Lewis' father, Captain Carr, returned to their Curwensville home on Monday. Mr. Lewis says the weather all through the winter in that portion of the south, was very mild, compared to the climate in this mountain country. They had a very enjoyable time during their stay in the south.

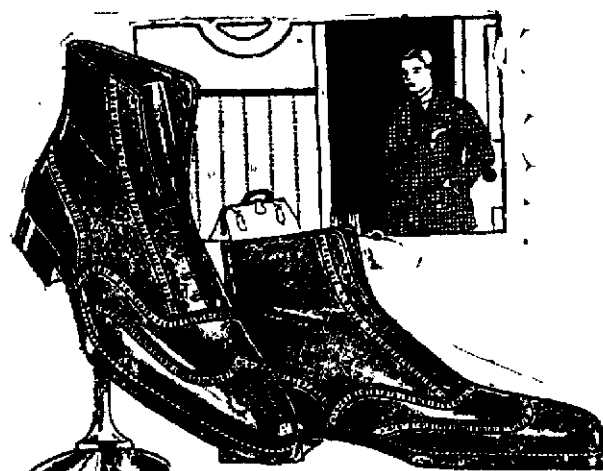

Joseph Bartelle will leave for Detroit on Sunday, where he contemplates spending the summer months.

A concert will be given in the Baptist church on Sunday evening, the program consisting of music, readings, etc. It promises to be an interesting hour, to which the public is most cordially invited to be present.

The regular business meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal church, will be held in the ladies' parlor of that church on Wednesday afternoon, April 7th, at 2:30 o'clock sharp. The meeting will be followed by a 15 cent lunch, also a food sale consisting of home made cakes, pies and other good things. All are cordially invited to attend.

Persons who are operating local coal banks are busily engaged these days in loading their product on railroad cars. The output would be greatly increased daily if miners could be obtained and persuaded to enter these small veins to work. Miners do not care to enter and mine where the veins run on an average of from twenty to twenty-six inches of coal. They can find employment in mines where the coal veins run much higher, and coal easier to bring down and load.

Joe Walker, of Grampian, has dignified his faith in Curwensville by establishing a garage on the Tate Livery Stable property between Dr. Blair and Al McNaul's residences. The old wooden building will be repaired and used until such a time

WHEN YOU WAKE UP DRINK GLASS OF HOT WATER

Wash poisons and toxins from system before putting food into stomach.

Wash yourself on the inside before breakfast like you do on the outside. This is vastly more important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing illness, while the bowel pores do.

For every ounce of food taken into the stomach, nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out of the body. If this waste is not eliminated day by day it quickly ferments and generates poisons, gases and toxins which are absorbed or sucked into the blood stream, through the lymph ducts which should suck only nourishment.

A splendid health measure is to drink, before breakfast each day, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of Limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless way to wash the poisons from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels; thus cleansing and sweetening and freshening the alimentary canal before eating more food.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs but very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to make any one an enthusiast on inside bathing.

ROUNDED UP SEASON'S FIRST HOBOS

Chief Eadie and Officer Carlson made their first spring round up of hobos Wednesday evening and after searching the brickyards and other public works about the town succeeded in bagging two fine specimens. The "pilgrims" were given a night in the borough lockup and Mayor Chase sentenced them to a house-cleaning siege and when they had the "cooler" cleaned and dusted they were given two hours to get out of town.

These "birds of passage" are going to get short shrift from the Mayor and his police force this year. Every man should be at work.

YOU'RE LOOKING YOUNGER EVERY DAY, NOW.

Gray, faded hair turned beautifully dark and lustrous almost over night, is a reality, if you'll take the trouble to mix sage tea and sulphur, but what is the use, you get a large bottle of the ready-to-use tonic, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at drug stores here. Millions of bottles of "Wyeth's" are sold annually, says a well-known druggist, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has happened. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, and the hair grows dark and lustrous. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Recent arrivals from Sunny Florida are telling of a hair-raising incident which tourists witnessed from the deck of a pleasure steamer and in which our townsman, William Boyce, the noted one hundred and ten-inch near-deer slayer, was the hero. It appears that this particular body of water is infested with large herds of doe porpoises which, when they smell the blood of an idle rich Pennsylvanian become very carnivorous and in the hope that a convenient storm or other mishap might dump the human cargo overboard the porpoise swims along side and under the boat swishing its mighty tail in hungry anger. On this particular occasion the herd was so large that the boat had great difficulty in making its way thru them and the grazing of the rough saw-like backs and snouts of the porpoises was enough to make the blood of all on the boat curdle and send chills shooting down the spine. The herd was led and marshalled by an immense buck porpoise which made mighty leaps into the balmy air and with each succeeding leap came nearer landing on deck to devour the hefty Pennsylvanians. Finally with one magnificent leap the porpoise cleared the deck rail on the end of the boat and was rapidly making his way down the deck to the terrified group of passengers. There was no jawbone laying around with which Mr. Boyce could emulate the example of Sampson but with rare presence of mind he quickly improvised a sling out of a golf stick bag and using a heavy lead sinker for a stone he unwound his good faithful right arm and smote, at a distance of one hundred and ten inches, linoleum measure, the Goliath porpoise, and did him to his death.

POLITICAL PARTIES IN WILD SCRAMBLE TO GAIN FAVOR OF 28,000,000 VOTERS

BOTH REPUBLICAN AND DEMOCRATIC STATES WILL HAVE OPPORTUNITIES

PARTY EFFECTING RATIFICATION WILL NATURALLY ATTRACT LARGE
SUPPORT FROM WOMEN

LOUISIANA VOTES NEXT MONTH

WASHINGTON, April 2—Final defeat of suffrage in Delaware will start the race between the national organizations of the Democratic and Republican parties for the credit of making possible ratification of the amendment which enfranchises more than 26,000,000 women it was believed here today. Suffragists, they said, have not yet given up hope for ratification in Delaware. The Democratic states which can enter into the race for credit for final ratification are North Carolina and Louisiana, and the Republicans have Vermont and Connecticut. The Governor of North Carolina according to suffragists here has indicated that he will call a special session in June. The Louisiana legislature meets in regular session in May.

DEMOCRATS PREDICT DEFEAT FOR PEACE RESOLUTION IN THE SENATE

WASHINGTON, April 2—Republican leaders in Congress will not be able to muster enough votes to pass the peace resolution over the veto of the President, leading House Democrats declared today after a canvass. Both Champ Clark from Missouri, Democratic floor leader and Representative Floor from Virginia the ranking minority member of the Foreign Affairs committee said it would be impossible for the Republicans to force the resolution through by the two third majority necessary to override the veto.

Wilson's determination not to sign the resolution means that legal peace will not be effective until the Senate and the President agree on some kind of a treaty. This in all probability will not be until after election unless the President yields to League reservations.

HORRIBLE MURDER MYSTERY IN W. VA.

PINCETON, W. Va., April 2—Three men were held in connection with the murder of Mrs. Martin Goldheim, a bride of a few months. Her husband, a prominent business man of this city, was held as a material witness. When the police arrived they found the badly beaten body of Mrs. Goldheim and Goldheim had a wire twisted around his neck. He said three men had attacked his wife and then tried to stab him.

ARRAIGNED FOR BRUTAL TREATMENT OF CHILD

NEW YORK, April 2—John Gallander, aged 56 was to be arraigned today on the charge of assault as the result of alleged cruelty to his 17-year-old daughter, Minnie. According to the police the girl had been burned with a hot iron, cut with a sharp knife and pricked with needles. Gallander is a clay modeler and a vaudeville actor.

SHIPPING BOARD VESSEL AFIRE

NEW YORK, April 2—The United States Shipping Board steamer Eastern King of 2,315 tons was afire off the coast of Cuba and needed help according to wireless messages from Key West, Florida. The United States Shipping Board steamer Lake Method is pouring water on the burning vessel, the message said. The Eastern King sailed from New York March 26th for Cuba.

AMERICANS IN MEXICO HAVE THRILLING EXPERIENCE

WASHINGTON, April 2—Major Burr, assistant military attaché at the American embassy in Mexico City, his wife, Dr. Florence Hale and Mr. Hurd, all Americans were passengers on a train from Mexico City which was attacked by rebels on March 28, the State Department was advised today by the American Embassy at Mexico City. All of the Americans escaped without injury according to the advices.

START FOREST FIRES TO MAKE BERRY CROPS

False Notion That Fires Produce Huckleberries Cause
of Much Damage

PROSECUTIONS MAY FOLLOW

HARRISBURG, Pa. April 2—Some persons still cling to the old-fashioned idea that a heavy crop of huckleberries follows a forest fire, according to Carl L. Kirk, forester in charge of the Pennsylvania state forest in Clearfield county. He believes that that forest fire that swept over an area of 75 acres along Mountain Lick Run last week was started intentionally for the purpose of growing a better crop of huckleberries two years hence.

Forester Kirk and a crew of fire-fighters extinguished the blaze before it had done much damage to the forest reserve, but if the wind had not been favorable or if there had been less snow in the woods, the damage he believes, would have been considerable. There is a chance, Forester Kirk reports, that the person responsible for the fire will be brought to justice. The forest officers who responded to the fire call were Carl L. Kirk, forester; Frank Johnston, ranger; W. H. Lamb, patrolman, and J. J. Timlin, forest-fire warden.

Forester Kirk has started construction of a telephone line on his reserve. The first job will be to connect the forester's headquarters with the Bell Central office. Work will then be started to connect up the rangers' headquarters on Anderson creek.

Sheriff S. C. Lowry, of Jefferson county is assisting Forester Kirk to secure capable fire wardens to look after the protection of the forest lands in Jefferson county.

OLD STAGE COACH DRIVER DIES

Harry Treatman, for many years a resident of Clearfield, died at the County Home hospital yesterday, aged about 75 years.

The deceased was an old-time stage coach driver and was quite widely known throughout this region. When the railroads displaced the stage coach, he took up teaming and was employed about Leavy's and other Clearfield livery stables for a number of years. He was an industrious man, although badly crippled and when advancing years additionally handicapped him, he became an inmate of the Home.

He is survived by one daughter living in Tyrone, and two sons whose whereabouts are unknown.

Thirteen Candidates For President Entered In Michigan Primary Monday

A GOOD FRIDAY PRAYER

O Merciful God, who hast made all men in Thy image and whose love will let none go, give to us a new vision of Thy Son whose death on Calvary we today recall. Grant to men everywhere a new appreciation of the meaning of Christ's sacrifice for the world. Forbid that men and nations again release the Barabbas of selfishness, and crucify anew the Christ. Lift up their eyes today to see the cross that towers over the wrecks of time. Give to the world a new and holy purpose to follow Him who said "If I be lifted up I will draw all men unto me," that as we die today to self we may pass on Easter Day into the joyful resurrection of a life that is hid with Christ in God. And this we ask in Jesus' name. Amen.

"Ice Cream," Demands Juror, Morning, Noon and Night

By M. D. TRACY
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

TOMBSTONE, Ariz., April 2—"I gotta have another of them cornucopias," impatiently remarked an elderly gentleman to the keeper of Tombstone's only soda fountain, located in Tombstone's combination drug store, cabaret, concert hall, news stand and cigar emporium.

"If that old fellow don't quit chasing me over here after cornucopias he's goin' to founder himself," the elderly gentleman went on.

It was the bailiff carrying out the court's instructions with regard to the care of the Bisbee, "deportation" jury.

"You gentlemen are to see that every want of these jurors is filled," was what Judge Sam Pattee had told the three bailiffs the night he ordered the cowboy jury locked up for the remainder of the historic trial in which it is sitting.

Those orders were a signal for every juror to satisfy the least whim

he had developed in long, dreary months of riding ranges and facing the wind, sun and sand of the desert.

With one man the chief demand had been for talcum after a shave. Another is forcing the country to furnish him with a luxurious handsoap which contains olive oil as a relief from the brand purchasable at the crossroads grocery.

But with one juror the demand is for ice cream cones. Who the dispatting member of the jury is, no one can tell, but that does not alter the fact that all Tombstone knows his failing for vanilla ice cream.

Just before court convenes in the morning a bailiff makes a hurry call at the soda fountain.

"One of them vanilla cornucopias," he says.

At noon he appears again. And twice in the evening—before and after the movie show—its "ice cream cones for one" and the bailiff disappears behind the swinging doors of the courtroom.

WAS FORMER CLEARFIELD RESIDENT

William E. Schoening, Jr., the 11 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Schoening, former resident of Clearfield, died at his parents' home in Bradford, Pa., on Sunday last, as the result of the lad having eaten wild parsnip or other poisonous root which he found growing along the Erie railroad tracks near that city.

In speaking of the sad affair the Bradford Star says: "Young Schoening returned home terribly ill and Dr. Woodhead was summoned, but by the time he arrived the boy was in convulsions and near death. He died at 2:45 o'clock."

He is survived by his parents, two sisters and three brothers. The Schoening family removed from Clearfield to Bradford some two years ago.

The personnel of District 8 in DuBois consisted of Paul Brubaker, Acting District Engineer; John M. Dunsmore, Assistant Engineer; Roswell Canfield, Chief Draftsman; J. B. Carlson, Chief Clerk, together with a field and office force of twenty men, working in and out of DuBois.

Billie Betz, of Philadelphia, is spending a few days with his uncle, W. I. Betz.

PROGRESS BEING MADE ON RE-BUILD- ING OF BRIDGES

The Progress is in receipt of a query from a down river citizen, relative to the progress made by the County Commissioners toward having the Deer Creek and Rolling Stone bridges rebuilt. We visited the Commissioners' office this morning and in answer to our inquiry, received the information that everything possible is being done at this end of the line and action by the State authorities, who have the bridges to build, is expected very shortly.

A story is being circulated to the effect that nothing can be done toward the rebuilding of these bridges until the Legislature of 1921 makes the necessary appropriation. There is nothing to such a tale. The law specifies that these bridges must be built out of any funds available to the State Highway Department, which always has ample funds on hand for such emergencies.

We hope to have some good news on these projects shortly.

Herbert Hoover Has Name On Both Republican And Democratic Ballots

OTHER UNUSUAL SITUATIONS

NEW YORK, April 2—Campaign observers are predicting that Michigan will become a political cemetery Monday. Thirteen candidates for the Presidential nomination—7 Republicans, 5 Democrats and 1 Socialist—are entered in the primaries on that date. While it is still comparatively early, in pre-convention campaigns Michigan is regarded as "a typical state" this year so far as nominations are concerned. Several candidates, particularly the Republicans are confidently claiming the state's endorsement. The thirteen candidates are: Republicans, Senator Miles Poindexter, Senator Hiram Johnson, General John J. Pershing, Major General Leonard Wood, Governor Frank O. Lowden, of Illinois, Herbert Hoover and W. G. Simpson, of Detroit. The Democrats are: Governor Edward I. Edwards, of New Jersey; Wm. Jennings Bryan, Wm. G. McAdoo, Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer and Herbert Hoover and Eugene Debs for the Socialists. At least two of the Republican candidates are expected to come in "on the Roosevelt sentiment"—Wood and Johnson—both of whom were persona friends of Roosevelt and generally regarded as Progressives. Hoover's backers believe he will inherit a large part of the liberal element that supported Roosevelt and Wilson. The fact that Hoover is on both tickets is expected to bring about an interesting situation.

IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Get less meat and take a glass of Jaid Salts to flush out kidneys—Drink plenty water.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush out the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from back-ache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Get less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jaid Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

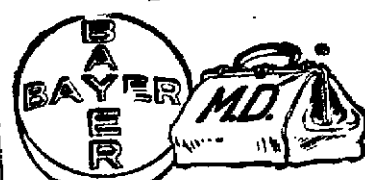

Jaid Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jaid Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

KANSAS TO HAVE FIRST HANGING IN FIFTY YEARS

LEAVENWORTH, Kansas, April 2.—Robert F. Stroud, of Junction, Alaska, will be the first man legally hanged in Kansas in almost fifty years, unless President Wilson saves him by exercise of executive clemency.

The last legal hanging in this state took place in 1870 and the death penalty was abolished in Kansas in 1907, but Stroud was tried and convicted in federal courts for a murder committed in the federal penitentiary here and sentenced under federal law to be hanged.

Another unusual feature of the case is the fact that he would have escaped with life imprisonment if he had not insisted upon a third trial which resulted in a death sentence. It is carried out he will be the first man to be executed in Leavenworth prison.

Stroud was serving a twelve-year sentence in the penitentiary for the killing of a man in Alaska in a quarrel over a dance-hall girl, when in 1916 he attacked Andrew E. Turner, a prison guard, and stabbed him to death with a dagger which he had made from a table knife, and earned in a concealed pocket in his coat. Stroud asserted subsequently that Turner had called him a name.

For this killing Stroud had three trials. In the first he was found guilty of murder and sentenced to death, but the court of appeals reversed the case on the ground that the trial judge had failed to inform the jury of its privilege of bringing in a "qualified verdict" limiting the punishment to life imprisonment. In the second trial the jury availed itself of this legal provision and sentenced him for life. Stroud's lawyers felt that they had gained a victory, but at the prisoner's insistence the case was again appealed, and at his third trial Stroud was once more found guilty and sentenced to death. The case was carried to the United States Supreme Court which affirmed the sentence.

Stroud has been aided by his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Stroud, who came from Alaska in an effort to save his life. She appealed to President Wilson to commute the death sentence.

STEEL PROSPERITY IS PREDICTED IN BUSINESS CIRCLES

All the recent reports bear out forecasts previously made that the United States is facing a large business in steel manufacture. If in the future, as in the past, the condition of the steel industry shall be an index of industrial conditions, the outlook is exceedingly encouraging.

The fact is that practically all industries that are large consumers of steel suspended development along normal lines during the war. There was no laying of rails for the extension of railroad lines. In fact, the reports of the Interstate Commerce commission show an actual decrease in railroad mileage. Not only that, but the railroads did not replace worn rails during the war to the same extent that they did in time of peace.

The manufacture of machinery for ordinary peace purposes the erection of steel frame buildings and the construction of bridges were postponed wherever possible, and all this accumulated construction work must now be undertaken. There is every reason why the country may expect a long-continued activity in the production of steel and fabricated steel products. Prosperity in the steel industry will be reflected in almost every other line of enterprise.

Her own words tell of her suffering and recovery better than we can do it: "I suffered with my stomach, had awful cramps and headaches so I often could not lay on a pillow. The AMERICAN LEGION

WITH THE POSTS OF THE
NATIONAL SERVICE
MEN

(Copy for This Department Supplied by National Headquarters of the American Legion)

STARTS FUND FOR BUILDING

Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce Heads Movement for Memorial and Permanent Headquarters.

The Indianapolis chamber of commerce is raising a fund for the erection of a war memorial building to be the permanent national headquarters of the American Legion, which, with appropriations by the city, county and state, promises to run to several million dollars.

"Every citizen of the city of Indianapolis and every organization owes a debt of appreciation and gratitude to the men who so ably and persistently and skillfully carried on the campaign for Indianapolis," said Charles F. Coffin, president of the Indianapolis chamber of commerce, which contributed to a fund to send a large delegation to the Minneapolis convention.

"There is now an obligation as well as an opportunity upon the citizens of Indianapolis to show that they all appreciate the significance of the fact that the headquarters of the great organization are to be permanently located in Indianapolis. It is not enough simply to have obtained them. I think you will agree with me that the least the city of Indianapolis can do is to supply the Legion ample grounds free of charge upon which they will erect one of the handsomest buildings that Indianapolis has ever had."

"Belonging the headquarters of this organization to Indianapolis is not like bringing a factory or industrial plant to the city. With this organization comes a power from which will go influences for law and order and civilization."

The fund started by the chamber of commerce grew quickly. The county commissioners shortly took steps looking to a half million dollar bond issue, the county's contribution to the fund. The state legislature is expected to make appropriation for the memorial and the Legion posts will canvass the state for contributions to what will probably be a $5,000,000 or $6,000,000 memorial fund.

A plan is now under consideration to purchase two city blocks lying between two parks which would clear a plaza between the city post office on the south and the city library on the north, which the new memorial building would face.

POPPY AS MEMORIAL FLOWER

Tacoma (Wash.) Post Adopts Resolution Urging Flanders Field Blossom Be Made Official.

A request has been received by Franklin D'Oiler, national commander of the American Legion, to have the Shirley poppy adopted as the memorial flower of the Legion. The request originated with the Edward B. Rhodes Post No. 2 of Tacoma, Wash., which has adopted a resolution favoring the adoption of the poppy.

The resolution adopted by the Washington post was as follows:

"Let us in the day's work, surrounded by home and happiness, forget our comrades who sleep in France, and here in the arms of the motherland;

"Let us forget 'that greater love' of these American boys who 'gave their lives for their fellow men';

"Let us forget that in Flanders fields the poppies grow, among the crosses, row on row, and that nature seems to have raised in these simple flowers the most eloquent monument—a waving scarlet blessing over their graves;

"Be it resolved, That the Edward B. Rhodes post, American Legion, inaugurate a movement to have the Shirley poppy adopted as the Memorial flower of the American Legion.

"That the American Legion take steps to assist and urge that every public park, cemetery, and every private garden, in gratitude to the men who made the supreme sacrifice, do, during the coming spring and summer, and every spring and summer thereafter, revere the memory of our soldier dead by setting aside a plot for continued display of waving red poppies.

"That a red poppy be worn by every member of the American Legion on Memorial day."

It is probable that a similar resolution will be introduced by the post at the next convention of the American Legion, which is to be held in Cleveland, O.

IN CHARGE OF ORGANIZATION

Director of Division Loaned to the American Legion by War Camp Community Service.

Russell G. Creviston, director of the organization division of the American Legion at national headquarters, Indianapolis, has been loaned for that purpose by the War Camp Community Service, with which organization he served as executive secretary in Minneapolis, prior to his affiliation with the Legion.

A Hoosier by birth, Mr. Creviston enlisted in May, 1917, in Company E of the Fourth Indiana infantry. He served as a private in this company for three months when he was elected as a candidate from his company to the second officers' training corps at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana. Commissioned as a first lieutenant of infantry, he was given complete charge of the administration co-ordination section.

On April 5, 1918, he was selected by the committee on education and special training to help in the organization of a vocational training system. In this connection, he was transferred to the inspectors' division and given charge of the states of Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, North and South Dakota, where he established various student army training corps.

Upon the completion by the war department of the S. A. T. C. movement, he was transferred to the general staff and put in charge of the ninth district commission on training camp activities, with station in Kansas City, Mo. In this capacity he covered nine states of the Middle West, during which time he was charged with the bettering of conditions within the camps and non-camp cities that bear direct relation to the demobilization period. He was discharged June 7, 1919, and accepted a position with the War Camp Community service.

IS COMMANDER OF NEW POST

Corporal Bute Presides Over Recently Formed Organization at Walter Reed Hospital.

Corporal J. E. Bute was elected commander of the new post of the American Legion recently formed at Walter Reed hospital in Washington, D. C., where about 1,800 sick and wounded men are receiving treatment. Corporal Bute was the addressee of a Christmas greeting, which Franklin D'Oiler, national commander sent to the ex-service men of the country.

In a letter recently received by Mr. D'Oiler, Corporal Bute said: "I very much suspect that you will be surprised to know that we have formed a very good post of the Legion here at the hospital. Two hundred and some signed the first night and it is near the four hundred mark now. I expect to have the post 1,800 strong by the first of the month."

"You may expect to hear some peculiar resolutions from us, but I am going to ask you to give us credit for wanting to help in any way possible ourselves and our brother comrades who have been back in civilian life for some time."

PLAN IS ENDORSED BY LABOR

New Jersey Unions and Labor Paper Editor in Favor of Americanism Program.

The Charles Henry Post No. 29 (New Brunswick, N. J.) secured the active co-operation of the local unions of the American Federation of Labor in the Americanism program which has been worked out by that post. Members of the post Americanism committee first explained in detail to the editor of the labor paper what their aims and plans were. They asked his help in advancing the cause of good citizenship and he not only publicly gave his editorial support, but offered space in his paper for publicity they wished for their work.

Members of the committee also went to the heads of various unions, and explained their aims and plans of campaign. The labor leaders, who were all patriotic Americans, were enthusiastic in their support of the Legion's plans and at one of the early meetings of all the labor unions the committee presented an outline of the Americanism work, for which they wish to obtain the assistance of the unions.

Buy your New Edison on our Budget Plan

EXPERT household managers have long used the Budget Plan. It stretches their incomes. We borrowed it—and applied it to the purchase of the New Edison. Come in. Find out how this good, old "thrifty" idea solves the problem of your New Edison.

We adopted the Budget Plan to please two people—Thomas A. Edison and You.

Edison's great hobby is music. He holds that good music is a necessity in the home.

But access to the great operas and concerts has been confined to the FEW. Edison thought of the MANY, and spent $3 million dollars in research work to develop the New Edison, "the phonograph with a soul."

Edison's new phonograph RE-CREATES the great voices and instrumental art of the world, with such perfect realism that human ear cannot distinguish RE-CREATED art from living art, even when the two are heard in direct comparison.

Edison set free a necessity that had been a luxury for ages.

We are working with Mr. Edison, and have adopted the Budget Plan in accord with his wishes.

The Budget Plan is a way for you to get your New Edison now. It doesn't increase your household expenses,—it simply distributes your monthly pleasure allowance in a different way. It gets you more for your money. Come in and see us. Tell us how you would like to plan your New Edison budget.

BELOW ZERO

By OTILLIA F. PFEIFFER

(Copyright, 1920, Western Newspaper Union)

He was a dreamer and a sentimentalist, but a genius as well, so the combination was rational to a degree. To the little community of Newton he was known as Jarvis Morton, a newcomer, living in a modest cottage with his mother and reputed to be an artist. In the live and active world his newspaper pen and ink sketches had begun to make him a name.

He was standing at the window of a cold and cheerless room, but not gazing outside, for the frost lay like a blanket across the panes. The merest excuse for a fire spluttered in the grate. On an easel was a drawing board with a sheet of paper tacked to it. The outline of a fair girl's face showed, but only half finished. Too cold to continue careful work, but the creative impulse always seeking expression, he applied the pencil tip to the frosts, pane and began sketching that same face.

Amid his abstraction he had not heard a knock at the frosted portal nor footsteps in the hallway. The door of the room was timidly pressed open.

"If you please, if you are Mr. Morton," commenced a pleasing voice, and its owner, girlish and attractive, faltered. Her glance had fallen upon the limned face on the easel and its more finished duplicate on the window pane. Surprise, pleasure, wonderment and admiration blended.

Jarvis Morton turned to instantly recognize the original of his art effort. He had seen her across two vacant lots several times, but had never spoken to her. He spoke now, with an encouraging smile, for she had become timid and embarrassed.

"I am Jarvis Morton," he said. "You are our neighbor, I believe, Miss Hilsley?"

"Yes, Marian Hilsley," hurried on the girl, fidgeting. "If you please, your mother sent me over. It is so cold and slippery outside that I wished to save her exposure and discomfort. She came over to use our telephone to hurry up the load of coal you ordered. The dealer says they haven't a pound of fuel in the yard, and mother says that this coal shortage makes us all like one family, and the weather man says the cold snap will last for a week, and you people are to bring over some comforters and lock up the house, and we'll do the rest."

"And what a beneficent 'rest!' rejoined Jarvis brightly. 'This isn't mere hospitality. It's a real rescue from freezing to death! I was just thinking of splitting up a couple of chairs and muffling in all the blankets in the house and hibernating until the zero menace was gone.'

His joyousness was manifest, and she entered into the enlivening rest of the occasion with demure, but pretty graciousness.

"You see, we managed to just graze the famine by getting a ton of coal delivered yesterday," she resumed. "Your mother insists on bringing over whatever there is cooked in the house."

"Won't you help me rummage the larder?" suggested Jarvis, and they laughed and chatted like two happy children as they loaded up a clothesbasket. Then Jarvis went to secure the blankets. When he returned Marian stood surveying the easel sketch.

"How nice to be able to draw like that," she ventured, detected at studying her own presentment.

"And how fortunate was I to catch your face as a study while you were cleaning the snow this morning!" said Jarvis. "When the sketch is finished I shall call it 'The Snow Queen.' The newspaper asked for something wintry, and that graceful swirl of the snow shovel and the shimmering flakes forming an airy veil just filled the bill."

"Oh! it won't be printed, will it?" marveled Marian. "Me in the paper! How strange it will seem to me! It must be delightful to be able to make the world look at whatever you wish to draw."

"Bless the coal shortage!" uttered the artist and lover after four days' sojourn in the cozy Hilsley home, for the latter he had unconsciously become, and the fulfillment of a cherished ideal of loveliness, artless innocence and silent but sweet devotion had brought a bewildering joy to his impressible heart. It seemed as if his mother had emerged from direful loneliness into perfect enjoyable comfort and companionship, shut in from the outside world with happy-spirited Mrs. Hilsley. Marian flitted about the little house with smiles and bright sayings, making it a delight to Jarvis to hear, to see and to cherish her. He frowned when the cold moderated, he growled when he realized that they must soon leave this Eden of perfectness.

"What a happy four we would all make!" he soliloquized one day, and, musing at the window, he began tracing on a lightly frosted pane, as Marian chanced into the room.

"Come here, please," he spoke, with a bright sparkle in his eye. At the window she had first seen him, at a window she now joined him, and as he handed her his pencil she flushed and trembled, as she read:

"I love you."

Then, in pretty embarrassment, but ecstatically quiet, she traced the true, simple words:

"I love you, too!"

Cause for Gladness.

Heien had not seen her grandmother since the child was a wee tot. Grandma came to them on a visit and proved to be quite young looking and stylish. After greetings were over Heien, standing at a distance, looked at her grandparent and approvingly said: "Grandma, I am so glad you are so full of youngness."

Goat's Milk.

Goat's milk in Naples is a satisfactory and healthful solution to the difficult problem of supplying the extremely poor with a food commodity free from deliberate adulteration. With a death rate of infants under one year of 155 per 1,000, the Naples rate is lower than that of the principal cities of Europe.

Keep Up Your Confidence.
The majority of failures begin to deteriorate by doubting or depreciating themselves or by losing confidence in their own ability. The modest you harbor doubt and begin to lose faith in yourself you capitulate to the enemy. Every time you acknowledge weakness, inefficiency or lack of ability you weaken your self-confidence, and that is to undermine the very foundation of all achievement.—Orison Swett Marden in Chicago Daily News.

Cinching the Pedestrian.
Motorists, it seems, are hoping that it will soon be compulsory for pedestrians to carry number plates for the purpose of identification in the event of any attempt to run away after being knocked down.—London Punch.

Hair Was Golden.
A neighbor's child, three, had never before noticed that her uncle had a bald spot on his head. On the occasion of a recent call she said: "Oh, Uncle Frank, you have a hole in your hair."

80TH DIVISION
TO RE-UNE AT
PITTSBURGHLIST OF JURORS
DRAWN FOR MAY
TERM OF COURTGreat Preparations Being Made
To Welcome Heroes of Blue
Ridge Fame

APRIL 10TH DATE OF FETE

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 2—The biggest get-together meeting held by members of the Eightieth Division, Veterans' Association, will be staged here April 10 at Motor Square Garden. Many former unit commanders of the division, in addition to hundreds of doughboys who served under them through the campaigns in France, will descend on Pittsburgh from all over Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Virginia.

Among leaders of the Blue Ridge Division, who will be present to meet the men of their old commands are Brig. Gen. Adelbert Cronkhite, who commanded the division; Col. Lloyd M. Brett, retired, who as a brigadier general commanded the One Hundred and Sixtieth Brigade of Infantry in France; Col. George D. Freeman, commander of the Three Hundred and Eighteenth Infantry; Col. Harry C. Jones, of the Three Hundred and Eighteenth Infantry; Capt. William C. Vandewater of the Three Hundred and Twentieth Infantry; Capt. John McBridge of the Three Hundred and Eighteenth Infantry; Major Charles M. Jones, divisional adjutant, and Capt. Curtis W. McGraw of the Three Hundred and Twentieth Infantry.

Many events, including dancing, a circus sideshow and exhibition of war trophies captured from the Germans by men of the division, moving pictures showing various armistice day celebrations in Pittsburgh, and last but not least, cats. Just what the show will consist of is a secret, but the ladies of Pennsylvania Auxiliary No. 1 Eightieth Division Veterans' Association under whose auspices the meeting is being held, have guaranteed that "goldfish" and "corned willie" will not be on the menu.

Short speeches will be made by Maj. Gen. Cronkhite and Col. Brett. A feature of the reunion will be an arrangement by which men of various units will be able to gather in their own P. C.'s. The hall will be divided into sections and each unit assigned a place where its members can hold forth with their old bunks.

As the meeting will attract many men from out-of-town to Pittsburgh, it has been decided to show the government official film, "The Eightieth In Action" at Carnegie Music Hall April 8. The pictures there are nine reels created such a fine impression when shown here several weeks ago, and so many were disappointed in not being able to secure seats, that, after much effort, the officials of the Veterans' Association obtained the privilege of showing the film again. Tickets are on sale here at Mellor's Music Store. Reservations can be made by mail.

Of all the men in the Blue Ridge Division none stood closer to the doughboys than Father "Ed" Wallace of the Three Hundred and Twentieth Infantry. So "Father Ed" is coming up to the get-together meeting and on the following day, Sunday he, in company with three other former champions of the division, will conduct a memorial service here in St. Paul's Cathedral.

Arrangements are being made to supply rooms for men who are coming to Pittsburgh to attend the events. Members are advised to write at once to headquarters of the Eightieth Division Veterans' Association, 915 Bessemer Building, Pittsburgh, Pa.

CLEARFIELD LOSES VALUABLE
SALVATION ARMY WORKER

On Sunday evening Lieutenant M. R. Howe, the able assistant of Captain Roub of the Salvation Army, farewelled to go to her new appointment at Punxsutawney. She has been under farewells orders since January 25th, but owing to the serious illness in the family of the commanding officer, it was thought best to keep her here until they were improved sufficiently to let the Captain free to look after the duties of the Corps.

Clearfield's loss is Punxsutawney's gain and we pray that God may bless and help her in her new field.

Extra rubber
where the wear
is hardest

JUST where your last pair of shoes wore out first—just where miners' shoes usually break through—that's where the U. S. Bootee is specially backed up.

Five thicknesses of tough, springy rubber in the sole! Ten heavy layers of rubber and fabric back of the heel! Five at the toe! Six in front where the bend comes! Four at the fold on the side!

More and more of the old timers today are wearing this shoe that's made for work in the mines.

The U. S. Bootees are made by the oldest and largest rubber manufacturer in the world.

And they're made right, too. No rubbing up and down at the heel—plenty of room for your toes—every pair is as comfortable as a leather shoe.

Go to the store and see the U. S. Bootee for yourself. It comes in two styles, high and low—the high with six eyelets, the low with four. Ask for U. S. rubber footwear—it means solid wear and long service for your money.

If it could be ascertained beyond a doubt just who the popular choice of Republicans is for president the prognostications of political dopesters would be useless. By the same token the safety and security of the republic would be assured. Three weeks ago Mr. Wood had almost a clear field to himself throughout the eastern states and while interest in his candidacy cannot be said to have weakened the looms on the horizon a spectre named Hoover whose popularity is rapidly increasing. Johnson of California is a giant in the west and will have to be reckoned with in the convention while Sproul is holding his own in fine shape in all quarters. These four men we have mentioned are now definitely in the race by reason of popular demand. It is a peculiar situation. It cannot be said that any one of them is the particular choice of the ruling powers of the party and some of them are decidedly distasteful. The average Republican has his personal choice but once the convention names the man they will be behind him to the last ditch.

When the proletariat did so much kicking on the fifty cent hair cut price adopted by the barber's union here some months ago we saw a division of labor. The fellow who worked in the mine, the mill and the shop ouches with the fellow who worked in the office and the store. It is a peculiar world. The newspaper man kicks about the price of a suit and the merchant kicks on the price of advertising. The miner kicks about the price of a haircut and the barber kicks about the price of coal. The laborer kicks about the price of farm produce and the farmer kicks on the price of labor. The barbers' union was not represented at the labor political conference held here last Sunday. Neither was the farmers' union, the Grange.

Governor Holcomb of Connecticut, remains firm in his refusal to call a special session of the legislature to act upon the Woman Suffrage Amendment. After practically two-thirds of the states have ratified the amendment, it looks like a very narrow policy to refuse women of America the privilege which should be theirs by every moral right. Every man in this or any other community is indebted to his mother for his good qualities. It was her constant care, her vigilance and self-sacrifice that nurtured in him the highest attributes that he possesses. It is the mothers of America who are shaping the destinies of this nation, and it is very doubtful if Governor Holcomb would have been the chief executive of the state of Connecticut had not his mother been a woman of sterling character and high ideals.

The experience that the nations have had with the Turks, during past centuries, and their record during the world war should be a convincing argument against further parley, notes, threats or any other form of diplomacy. Not only the city of Constantinople but the whole country should, in the interest of humanity, be occupied by the military forces of the allies, and controlled by them until new governments have been organized to succeed the Turks and said government so strongly supported by the world powers that never again may the soil of that unhappy land drink the blood of massacred Christians, whose only crime is love of home, liberty and their faith in God.

Spanish Sardine.
The principal industry of Vigo, Spain, is sardine picking. The Vigo district furnishes almost one-fourth of the world's production of sardines. The exports of these in oil in 1918 amounted to 1,017,000 cases of 100 tins each, with an estimated total value of $13,000,000.

Remarkable Sight.
Little Marjorie, aged 4, was looking out of the window on a frosty morning and saw a horse and buggy passing, and called: "Oh, mamma, come quick and see the dust comin' out of the horse's mouth."

Waterproof Glue.
Casolin glues are exceedingly resistant to the action of water and retain a very high percentage of their original strength even after long immersion under water. They are comparatively inexpensive, and the materials from which they are made are readily available in the market. They are applied cold and will set without the application of heat.

Duly Announced.
Mary, upon answering the door bell found a couple of women who had stopped to call. As she let them in she called to her mother: "Mother, you have a couple of customers."

Leitzinger Bros.STATEMENT OF MR. HERBERT HOOVER ON PRESIDENCY

"New York, March 3, 1920
"To Warren Gregory,
"Merchants' Exchange Building,
"San Francisco, California:

"I had not wished to enter, nor could I hitherto see any real public service by entering, into partisan political discussion, more especially pending the clarification of the diverging views of the different groups in the parties on the great new issues. The recent developments over the treaty, stagnation in adjustment of our great economic problems, and particularly the many urgent representations that I have received as to the situation in my own state, convince me that it is my duty to confirm the action that my Republican friends there have already taken without consulting me.

"I understand that there is a great wish among the Republicans of California to have opportunity to express themselves in favor of the League of Nations with proper reservations, safeguarding American tradition and interests, as opposed to the extreme view advocated against any league at all. I differ just as strongly with this view as I differ with the extreme position taken by the President on participation in European affairs. This issue is whether with reservations protecting our position, we should join the moral forces of the world to reduce the dangers again growing around us or whether we will, by pretense of an insularity that we do not possess, sit by in the face of growing armies, navies, national antagonisms, reaction or, in reverse, the spread of Bolshevism through much of the world. That would be the defeat of the hopes for which our sons were sacrificed in the war.

"Entirely aside from this moral question of the future and the future to our own ultimate peace, the solution of our domestic problems, such as the size of our armament, reduction in taxation and the prevention of agricultural and industrial depression and consequent unemployment, is dependent on stability abroad and on our access to the world's markets, which today are endangered by discrimination against us through our inability to exercise our veto under the treaty. I believe it is the transcendent service the Republican party can render to the nation to settle a league efficiently designed to give us these national protections.

"No one should be able to dictate the policies of great parties, yet every man and woman has the right to decide what issues and measure he will support. If the Republican party with the independent element of which I am naturally affiliated adopts a forward looking, liberal, constructive platform on the treaty and on our economic issues, and if the party proposes measures for sound business administration of the country and is neither reactionary nor radical in its approach to our great domestic questions and is backed by men who undoubtedly assure the consummation of these policies and measures, I will give it my entire support. While I do not and will not myself seek the nomination, if it is felt that the issues necessitate it and it is demanded of me I cannot refuse service.

"HERBERT HOOVER"

Exquisite Pumps And Oxfords For Easter Wear

They are daintily feminine in design, yet fashioned to assure fullest comfort for the wearer—and there is such variety in our display that every preference can be fully satisfied.

Getting Your Money's Worth

There's a lot of satisfaction in knowing that you're getting good shoes. Paying a little more doesn't matter, but if the shoes fail to hold up there's trouble ahead.

It's on the service basis that we recommend our Oxfords to any man who wants to be sure of his money's worth this spring. We won't sacrifice quality for price.

Lytle BrothersOur Dollars are stretched to the limit

WE have been dancing to the tune of "ECONOMY" for years. During the war, we cut, and cut, and cut some more.

We have gone the limit.

Are there new and improved practices?

Yes.

Automatic telephone equipment is coming—but it will be several years before it can be accomplished. And, besides, large amounts of capital will be required.

Multiplex telephony—the using of one circuit for several simultaneous conversations—is assured. But money is also needed for this complicated apparatus.

These improvements will save money—ultimately.

But they can't be obtained and introduced if the company is not paying its way. You would not put your money into a business that is not making a profit.

Telephone rates are the same as they were before the war.

They must be made adequate if the service is to be kept up.

The Cold That Hangs On

This is No. 5 of a series of advertisements, prepared by a competent physician, explaining how certain diseases which attack the air passages—such as Pneumonia, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Measles or even a long continued Cold—often leave these organs in an inflamed, congested state, thus affording a favorable foothold for invading germs. And how Vick's Vapo-Rub may be of value in this condition.

A cold is simply an inflammation of some part of the air passages—throat, larynx or bronchial tubes—just like a sore is an inflammation of the skin. A long continued cold means constant inflammation and this constant inflammation frequently weakens the air passages so that they become an easy point of attack for invading germs of more serious diseases. A "cold that hangs on," therefore, is simply nature's "red flag," indicating that there is "trouble below," and this warning should never be neglected.

Nightly applications of Vick's Vapo-Rub will aid nature to clear up that inflammation. Because Vick's acts locally by stimulation thru the skin to draw out the inflammation, attract the blood away from the congested spots and relieve the cough. In addition, the medicinal ingredients of Vick's are vaporized by the body heat. These vapors are breathed in all night long, thus bringing the medication to bear directly upon the inflamed areas.

Vick's should be rubbed in over the throat and chest until the skin is red—then spread on thickly and covered with hot flannel cloths—leave the clothing loose around the neck and the bed clothes arranged in the form of a funnel so the vapors arising may be freely inhaled. If the cough is annoying, swallow a small bit of Vick's the size of a pea.

Samples to new users will be sent free on request to The Vick Chemical Company, 235 Broad Street, Greensboro, N. C.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS CURWENSVILLE

The employees at the Elk sole leather tannery have been granted a slight increase in wages. The bonus heretofore paid the men as an inducement for them to work steadily, has been removed.

John Hudson has sold his South Side property to Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dotts, who will soon occupy the same. Mr. Hudson will remove with his family to the Joseph L. Dale farm near the Bloom bridge in Pike township, and will follow agricultural pursuits during the summer.

Through the agency of Game Warden Clair Kelly and John Kelly, twenty pairs of quail and seven pairs of ring neck pheasants were distributed around in the woods not far from town on Tuesday. The birds were in good healthy condition and ought to multiply rapidly.

Orvil King, son of Dr. King, came home from his studies in a Philadelphia medical school and will spend his Easter vacation with his parents.

Squire John A. Dale was in Clearfield Wednesday assisting in the probate of the will of the late Daniel Schorr. Besides owning his property on North Thompson street, he carried a life insurance policy of $1,000.

The high wind the other day played havoc with the barn roof owned by Joseph Dale on the hill above town.

The advance rates of the Raftsmen Water Company, the Penn. Electric company and telephone companies, went into effect yesterday, much to the dissatisfaction of patrons. A good many people contemplate removing their phones from their homes, as they claim that the rates are excessive for the service rendered them.

Mrs. Samuel Norris is in Warren, Ohio, visiting with relatives and friends. She writes that the stock visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Leach, a son of Irvin Leach, and left a young son.

M. V. Read, who has been employed at the McKinley home for the past three years, has resigned his position. Mr. Read has not as yet decided what he will follow this summer, he having had several good-paying situations offered to him. He is of the opinion, however, that he will go out of town and work during the summer months.

Lew Lewis and wife, who spent the greater part of the winter months at Ashland, Kentucky, at the home of Mrs. Lewis' father, Captain Carr, returned to their Curwensville home on Monday. Mr. Lewis says the weather all through the winter in that portion of the south, was very mild, compared to the climate in this mountain country. They had a very enjoyable time during their stay in the south.

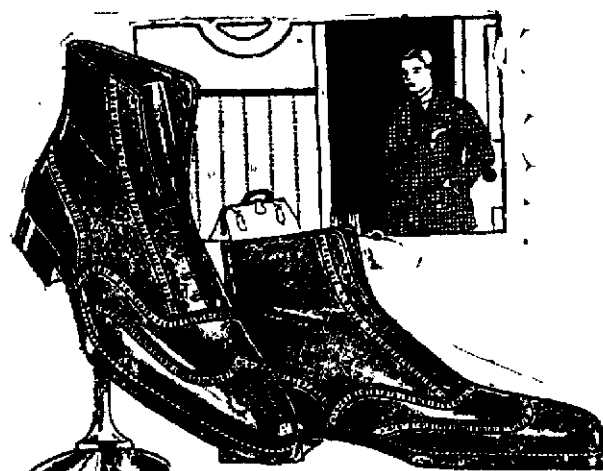

Joseph Bartelle will leave for Detroit on Sunday, where he contemplates spending the summer months.

A concert will be given in the Baptist church on Sunday evening, the program consisting of music, readings, etc. It promises to be an interesting hour, to which the public is most cordially invited to be present.

The regular business meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal church, will be held in the ladies' parlor of that church on Wednesday afternoon, April 7th, at 2:30 o'clock sharp. The meeting will be followed by a 15 cent lunch, also a food sale consisting of home made cakes, pies and other good things. All are cordially invited to attend.

Persons who are operating local coal banks are busily engaged these days in loading their product on railroad cars. The output would be greatly increased daily if miners could be obtained and persuaded to enter these small veins to work. Miners do not care to enter and mine where the veins run on an average of from twenty to twenty-six inches of coal. They can find employment in mines where the coal veins run much higher, thus cleaning and coal easier to bring down and load.

Joe Walker, of Grampian, has dignified his faith in Curwensville by establishing a garage on the Tate Livery Stable property between Dr. Blair and Al McNaul's residences. The old wooden building will be repaired and used until such a time

Wash poisons and toxins from system before putting food into stomach.

Wash yourself on the inside before breakfast like you do on the outside. This is vastly more important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing illness, while the bowel pores do.

For every ounce of food taken into the stomach, nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out of the body. If this waste is not eliminated day by day it quickly ferments and generates poisons, gases and toxins which are absorbed or sucked into the blood stream, through the lymph ducts which should suck only nourishment.

A splendid health measure is to drink, before breakfast each day, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of Limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless way to wash the poisons from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels; thus cleansing and sweetening and freshening the alimentary canal before eating more food.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs but very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to make any one an enthusiast on inside bathing.

ROUNDED UP SEASON'S FIRST HOBOS

Chief Eadie and Officer Carlson made their first spring round up of hobos Wednesday evening and after searching the brickyards and other public works about the town succeeded in bagging two fine specimens.

The "pilgrims" were given a night in the borough lockup and Mayor Chase sentenced them to a house-cleaning siege and when they had the "cooler" cleaned and dusted they were given two hours to get out of town.

These "birds of passage" are going to get short shrift from the Mayor and his police force this year. Every man should be at work.

YOU'RE LOOKING YOUNGER EVERY DAY, NOW.

Gray, faded hair turned beautifully dark and lustrous almost over night, is a reality, if you'll take the trouble to mix sage tea and sulphur, but what is the use, you get a large bottle of the ready-to-use tonic, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at drug stores here. Millions of bottles of "Wyeth's" are sold annually, says a well-known druggist, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has happened. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, and you are enthusiastic. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Recent arrivals from Sunny Florida are telling of a hair-raising incident which tourists witnessed from the deck of a pleasure steamer and in which our townsman, William Boyce, the noted one hundred and ten-inch near-deer slayer, was the hero. It appears that this particular body of water is infested with large herds of doe porpoises which, when they smell the blood of an idle rich Pennsylvanian become very carnivorous and in the hope that a convenient storm or other mishap might dump the human cargo overboard the porpoise swims along side and under the boat swishing its mighty tail in hungry anger. On this particular occasion the herd was so large that the boat had great difficulty in making its way thru them and the grazing of the rough saw-like backs and snouts of the porpoises was enough to make the blood of all on the boat curdle and send chills shooting down the spine. The herd was led and marshalled by an immense buck porpoise which made mighty leaps into the balmy air and with each succeeding leap came nearer landing on deck to devour the hefty Pennsylvanians. Finally with one magnificent leap the porpoise cleared the deck rail on the end of the boat and was rapidly making his way down the deck to the terrified group of passengers. There was no jawbone laying around with which Mr. Boyce could emulate the example of Sampson but with rare presence of mind he quickly improvised a sling out of a golf stick bag and using a heavy lead sinker for a stone he unwound his good faithful right arm and smote, at a distance of one hundred and ten inches, linoleum measure, the Goliath porpoise, and did him to his death.
